

From Resolution to Realisation

The Impact of the European Parliament Resolution of 9.9.2015 on Women's Careers in Science and University

Lunchtime Debate at the European Parliament in Brussels on 6 September 2017 from 13.00 till 15.00

Room ASP 3E2

Programme

- 13.00 Opening, Dr. Brigitte Mühlenbruch, President of EPWS
- Welcome Address, Dr. Laima Andrikiienė MEP
- Current Policy Regarding Women in Science,
Ms. Ana Arana Antelo, Head of Unit B.7 Science with and for Society,
DG Research and Innovation (or Ms Viviane Willis-Mazzichi)
- 13.20 Main ideas of the EP Resolution of 9.9.2015 on Women's Careers in Science and University,
Ms. Elissavet Vozemberg-Vrionidi MEP (tbc)
- 13.30 Short Presentations on the Impact of the Resolution in Selected Realms
Chair: Prof. Claudine Hermann, Vice-President of EPWS
- Effectiveness of Measures taken for Structural Changes, Prof. Mieke Verloo, Radboud University Nijmegen, and EGERA Project
 - Education and Training, Prof. André Béraud, ECEPIE Association
 - Working Conditions/Working Culture in STEM, Dr. Sveva Avveduto, Research Director, National Research Council (CNR) Italy, and GENERA Project
 - Development of Indicators, Ms. Virginija Langbakk, Director EIGE
- 14.15 Round Table Discussion: Success, Resistance and Further Steps
Chair: Dr. Maren A. Jochimsen, University of Duisburg-Essen, EPWS Treasurer
Ms. Vilija Blinkevičiūtė MEP, Chair FEMM Committee (tbc); Prof. Jean-Pierre Bourguignon, President ERC; Dr. Katrien Maes, Chief Policy Officer LERU; Prof. Gulsun Saglamer, President EWORA; Prof. Dalia Šatkovskienė, President BASNET Forumas
- 15.00 Concluding Remarks

27.06.2017